Dedication

In grateful appreciation for the guidance he has given us in the years he has been our class advisor, and because he has been a very close friend to everyone in the class, we, the members of the class of 1955, respectfully dedicate the 1955 CHIEF to Mr. Orville Johnson

BOARD OF EDUCATION

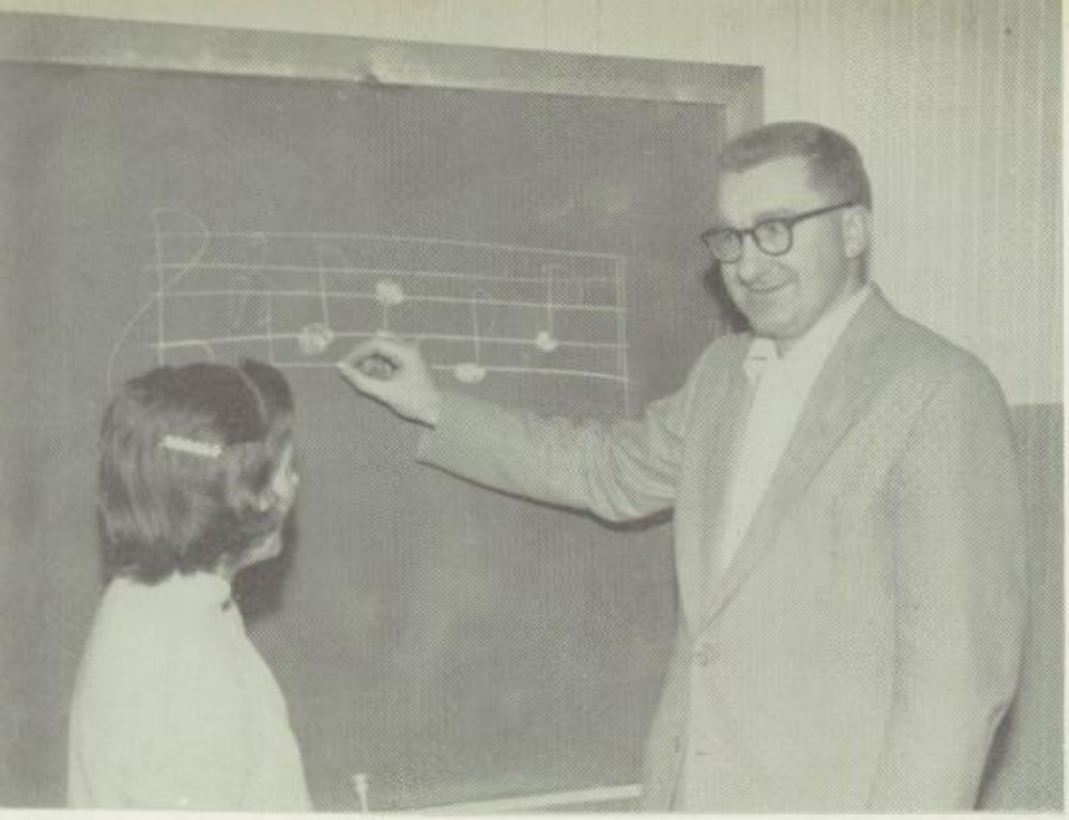
L.to R: Harry Shedivy, Treasurer; Tilmon Olson, President; J. T. Finley, Clerk

Lawrence Kneeland who is missing from this picture has replaced Harry Shedivy as Treasurer of the school board. Mr. Shedivy is now undersheriff at Prairie du Chien. Tilmon Olson replaced Anton Laskaskie as President of the school board. Mr. Laskaskie resigned his position when he became Treasurer of Crawford County.

B. T. Webster, Principal, discussing a sophomore problem with Jack Olson

Miss J. Libera seems pleased with Elaine DuCharme's work on a business letter

Coach B. Vidmar and Floyd Sutton talk over last night's victory



Mr. S. Eisch, music instructor, shows Corrine Beers the tune-up note

Mr. O. Johnson, chemistry teacher, instructs Betty Burton on the fundamentals of distilling water

Miss R. Behrents, home economics teacher, helps Shirley Helgerson make a rose

Ed Martin learns the first steps in milk testing from Mr. G. Holman, agriculture instructor

"But that's a verb," says Mrs. G. Doll, English teacher, to Don Severson

Welding is just one of the phases of Robert Carlson's work as Vet. Trainer

Cleaning is a full-time job for janitor Ed Ostrander

Mrs. G. Newcomb and Mrs. E. Ostrander preparing our favorite meal--chili
